

To Whom It May Concern:

I have known Marie Laure Dancer for almost 2 years and during this period, I have known her as a person of high integrity, passionate about people development, very diligent and responsible in whatever she does, and a wonderful associate to work with.

We have engaged her as our facilitator and coach for developing and solidifying our team using the Reina team trust assessment and we had a follow-up session with her and partner. Her facilitation was very good and she was able to identify and adapt the needs of the current team, using appropriate tools which result in very positive outcome for our team growth and breakthrough.

I highly recommend her as an executive coach and learning facilitator to any organization which would like to engage her. I strongly believe her presence will definitely make a positive impact to the team and people she works with.

Your Sincerely,
